

Developing Subject Specialists at Westacre Middle School—History

The traits of a historian when they leave Westacre Middle School are as follows:

- Demonstrates independent learning strategies through the 6Rs
- Understands a variety of historical people, events and periods
- Poses reflective questions about history
- Analyses sources for reliability
- Builds arguments based on reliable sources and can defend their findings
- Demonstrates a passion for history and share that with others
- Accepts challenge and embraces new research opportunities