

Developing Subject Specialists at Westacre Middle School - PE

The traits of a sports person when they leave Westacre Middle School are as follows:

- Utilise skills within a competitive game situation and be determined to succeed. [Aspirations Driver]
- The ability to communicate effectively to achieve a common goal. [Communication Driver]
- A general knowledge of sporting icons from different backgrounds. [Diversity Driver]
- Demonstrate independent learning strategies through the use of the 6R's
- An excellent knowledge of the rules for each game area.
- An excellent understanding of tactical and special awareness.
- Highly developed fundamental movement skills.
- The ability to reflect and analyse personal and team performance, identifying strengths and areas for improvement.
- To be able to demonstrate good sportsmanship, rooted in mutual respect.
- A passion to commit to extra-curricular sports and continue to be physically active outside of school.
- Fluency in technical vocabulary, particularly when analysing performance.
- Have experienced a wide range of sporting opportunities.
- Have confidence to lead a range of activities.